

The Clock Tower at Fintra

The Clock Tower is built on the site of a stables erected in 1896 for the Hamilton family, who owned the Fintra estate for seven generations. The tower and frontage - much beloved locally - have been preserved intact.

Just 3 kilometres west of Killybegs (on the Carrick/Glencolmcille road), Fintra estate comprises 85 rolling acres, tucked in between the mountains and the sea, and comprising rolling dunes, old woodland and the only Blue Flag beach on the north coast of Donegal Bay.

The Clock Tower at Fintra, Killybegs, Co. Donegal, incorporates a dining area, lounge bar and a well-designed space for functions of all sorts.

The lounge bar, on three levels with outside deck area, provides for up to 100 patrons in comfort. Food is available in the lounge also - and the 60in. plasma-screen TV set into the wall is the ideal way to keep abreast of the news or watch that major sporting event.

The 200-seat function room has its own bar and dance area and offers the ideal location for weddings, parties or business presentations. On Sundays, it is also the location for a mouth-watering family carvery.

Upstairs, a luxury 60-seat à la carte restaurant, has the perfect atmosphere with fine food and wine available, ideal for those special nights out.

The Clock Tower prides itself with a team of highly trained staff dedicated to insuring your visit is memorable and enjoyable.

The development of this establishment has been designed with responsibility and a care for the environment and includes a major dune recovery programme involving the bedding in of several thousand marram grass plants to assist dune formation and the planting of native Irish trees to revitalise the old estate woodland.
